This article is a stub and is in need of expansion. You can help Gender Wiki by expanding it.

Agenderflux (similar to agender, libragender, and genderflux), is a subset of genderflux where an individual may identify as if they feel no particular connection with any gender/identity, or agender, as well as fluctuating between having masculine and feminine gender identity.

This means that an individual has a "base gender" of agender, but can also fluctuate to and from masculine and feminine genders.

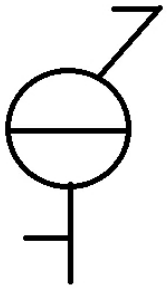
Agenderflux Flag

Masculine and feminine gender identities may include:

- Demigender (includes Demigirl and Demiboy)
- Transgender (includes Trans woman and Trans man)
- Genderfluid
- Genderflux
- Bigender
- Polygender
- Nonbinary
- Genderqueer
- Pangender

Flag found here

Flags associated with Agenderflux are the Genderflux flag and the Agender flag.



The Agenderflux flag was created by Tumblr user divineshaymin, and the term was officially coined by Tumblr user vulturedragonbones.

These flags and definitions are cited here and here, by admins on the blog "Pride Flags for Us".

The Agenderflux symbol was created by Tumblr user person3triple0, and is a combination of the Demigirl and Demiboy symbols.

This is how i feel but i dont think i fluctuate to any feminine gender identities, its usually masculine to agender but at different amounts. im afab, and i have times where im unconcerned about my chest, but other times where im completely disgusted by it. if i do end up feeling feminine it isnt in the sense that im a girl, its more just gender expression i believe. would this still be considered agenderflux?

I think maybe boyflux? Sometimes boyfluxes can fluctuate down to more from aligned genders, I think

Does anyone know what gender this could be please?
I am in a body which is AFAB. I feel quite masculine most of the time, but different amounts at different points. Some days I believe I am a trans male. I sometimes feel agender in addition to feeling masculine, and sometimes only feel agender. I also often feel a small amount of femininity but never large. My gender proportions often change depending on the people surrounding me, especially if those people are my romantic partners. Being with animals/ plants often makes me feel more masculine.

I am so sorry to bother anyone and if you don't wish to read this feel free, however anyone that could help would be greatly appreciated, as I am very confused right now, and cannot find anything that seems to accurately describes me:)

which flag is the most popular?

Bethy-baby • 7/25/2021

I don't know, but the second flag looks more like the agender flag so it's better imo !!

Is it possible for me to be agenderflux and cassflux? I feel so connected to both labels

Bethy-baby • 7/25/2021

Yes ! :D

Okay, I think I found what I am! But can I be gender-fluid but not know what I change to?

Cyberhon • 5/6/2021

You okay?

Ok so sometimes I partly identify as demifemale and other times male and other times Non-binary, and I'm probably fluidflux or Libra flux or a demigender and sometimes I identify as a demigender and idk what am I? Help would be v appreciated I also go by he/they pronouns. I'm afab

ElfGremlinGayMagician • 5/19/2021

Tbh same (about how you identify, being afab, and he/they pronouns). I don't even know what I am anymore hah

I'm really confused-
So I was born female and I look really feminine, but I go by the pronouns they/it (or he sometimes) but I don't think I want to change my appearance. I'm really not sure what my gender identity is. Honestly I might just lack the confidence to want to transition? I feel pretty bad dysphoria but I don't want to change (I don't think)?

Gender Expression is not gender identity! You can dress however you want and ur still valid as hecc.

I was girlflux but I started to doubt.. This kind of sounds like me but I never feel a masculine gender, but I kind of feel feminine sometimes. The only thing(I kind of) know is my gender fluctuates agender + some other gender

Which pronouns do they use?

> Heyyourecool • 3/23/2021

> Any. Whatever pronouns they like. Pronouns don't equal gender so any pronouns you feel comfortable using works. I for example am agender (i think?) and I use all pronouns, including a few neopronouns, so it's just up to them to decide what they like to use. Pronouns are part of one's gender expression and people can present however they like :)

I never identify as even partly girl, sometimes partly/fully boy, and the rest of the time agender. Am I agenderflux or boyflux? (I don't know if this is important or anything but, I rarely feel fully boy)

> RemyWest123 • 3/2/2021

> I'd say you are agenderflux because boyflux is when you kind of fluctuate between 0% boy and 100% boy but I'm not an expert so you can identify as both if you want because they both seem like what you are describing...

I identify mostly agender but sometimes like male and xenogender, does that make me agenderflux?

There are times that I feel like a demigirl, but I mostly identify as agender. Does that mean that I'm agenderflux?

can I be a demigirl who's feel partially agender but I feel like my agender part fluctuates but the demigirl part is always static? for example I always feel demigirl but partially agender and sometimes happens that I feel more connected to agender it goes from 20% to 60/70% but my demigirl part is always there I always feel demigirl even if my agender part fluctuates, idk how to explain, can I say I identify as demigirl agenderflux? I'm confused because this wiki says "This means that an individual has a "base gender" of agender" so it means I must identify as mostly agender and partially demigirl but for me is mostly demigirl and partially agender. I'm so confused I could cry okay so I've been identifying as agender for awhile but recently I've been feeling non binary some times and I'm thinking that I might just be like genderflux between non binary and agender, mostly agender, but this is saying that agenderflux(which sounds like it would fit me) is agender people who switch between masculine and feminine which is not me so could I still use agenderflux, and if not, what would I be?

I currently don't label my gender but I used to identify as agenderflux. However, I never liked the blue/pink gradient that one of the flags has, so I made my own and i wanted to share it.
